

Brighter Days

I got the news today.
That you're gone away.
And I'm wondering why.
Oh I'm wondering why.
Your life was cut too soon.
No one even knew...
That it was your time...
Your time to fly.
You got your wings today
And you flew away.
Way up to the sky, way up to the sky.
An angel went back home
Right where she belongs.
Oh it was her time.
Her time to fly.
But I miss you dear
My eyes are filled with tears
Please tell me why????
Please tell me why???
And in the pouring rain
I hear through the pain...
"This is not our home, it's not where we belong.
My wings are fancy...see?
Made just for me.
I'll be okay.
I'll be okay.
Crying is alright
But enjoy this life...
And I'll see you soon....Oh I'll see you soon."
Then like a flash of light.
The rain went away.
She's in a better place.
There'll be brighter days.
She's in a better place.
There'll be brighter days.
