

Dancing in the Clouds

When I'm gone
Don't you mourn
Instead celebrate my birth
And my time spent on this earth
I'm up in the clouds now
Smiling down on you somehow
Singing Hallelujah
Singing Hallelujah
Crying is alright
But not for the rest of your life
My life is done
But yours has just begun
When you open your eyes
You get another try
You may feel empty
But where I am, I'm full
You may be speechless
But where I am I sing
You may be questioning but where I am there are no worries
You may be in doubt
But where I am I shout....
Shout for joy on top of the clouds
Floating with angels if you could only see me now
I've got legs and I'm dancing
Waiting for you...
But in the meantime, smile when you think of me... won't you?
I hope a smile comes to your heart, when you think of me now
Because I'm up in the clouds, smiling down on you somehow.
